They're the start of proven headlines that grab attention.

What's that got to do with what Wealthy Affiliate is about?

Well similar to that list, Wealthy Affiliate has a proven system. And if you follow it with discipline and persistence. Your success is guaranteed.

The training's formulated to help people from all walks of life. But the sad truth is, most folk "give up". And carry on these "giving up" patterns for the rest of their lives. They're always blaming things outside of themselves for their lack of success.

There's a process that champions go through. And it looks like this:

- Full-on excitement that they've started a new venture.
- Then a few months in, their realisation it isn't going to be a walk in the park
- Energy levels drop
- Doubt creeps in (this is usually the six-month phase), the point where most give up.
- Motivation picks up when they start seeing results
- New habits form (the routine becomes "normal")
- Progress seems effortless
- Success is on the horizon
- They achieve their goals, and...
- The process starts again (new goals/horizons)
- Success compounded

Note: A Champion is someone who never gives up

Wantrepreneur v Entrepreneur

An Entrepreneur is someone who starts a business in the hope that one day they'll create value. And in the process "Make Money".

The simple formula for doing this is to listen to your market. And when you do, you'll find out the problems they need fixing. And guess who's going to fix them...

NOT the Wantrepreneur, who is an entirely different animal. This beast spends all their time reading HOW to books and watching HOW to vids. They never take ACTION! There are quite a few people in any endeavour who don't act out their dreams. Mainly because of the patterns I outlined above.

Don't let this be you.

Wealthy Affiliate is one of the best places to learn, especially for beginners in the industry, (and seasoned Pro's).

I mean... who doesn't need a kick up the a£$e now and again, (maybe why coaching is so in demand)

What Wealthy Affiliate is About

Accountability. One word that will help your journey tenfold.

Not only will you get the best training available, but there's a community of like-minded people always at hand to help you when you get stuck. (Or when your energy levels are dwindling).

Which is one of the main benefits of Wealthy Affiliate, especially if your motivation slows.

Have you ever been in a race with thousands of people cheering you on? (uplifting isn't it)

Well, even if you haven't, you'll get the experience at WA, (although it's NOT a race). We like to call it a marathon.

Where our expectations are high, but the time it takes is always dependant on how much time we "give".

So, if you want to reach your end goal in say, a year, it'll have to be a full-time endeavour. Loads to discover, especially for a beginner.

Hi, again Rodger,

I'm glad you've found the article to your liking.

Make sure you keep coming back, so you can fully absorb the nuggets of information I'm providing.

As with any "training", it'll take persistence and repetition for the new knowledge to take hold. (it works by "Osmosis") Which means, it'll slowly filter into your unconscious mind over time.

Most folks don't "push" through the pain barriers of the new. And so, keep repeating the same old behaviours.

I hope this helps you, Rodger, all the best.

Hi Jake,

As you've stated, WA isn't a "Get Rich Quick Scheme".

What it is, though, is a proven business plan. That if, adhered to, will produce all the wealth you ever wished for.

As with any business, you need to learn and put in the effort required. (Keep in mind the usual patterns I've explained in the post). And when you get to the stage where motivation is dropping. Realise that it's a behaviour everyone goes through. And when you push through those barriers. Nothing will ever get in your way.

All my life, I have been a wantrepreneur and not an entrepreneur. It just does not work out well whenever it has to do with me taking the appropriate actions towards leaping into the next zone. Thanks for this clarion call. I must say that I fancy it a lot. Thumbs up for sharing

Hi, I've been with Wealthy Affiliate for about five months now. I've enjoyed every second of it. I enjoyed this affiliate marketing stuff, and I enjoy learning about my passion and being able to teach others about it at the same time.

I will be honest and say that it requires hard work. It is not a get-rich-quick scheme, nor is it easy money. You will have many setbacks. However, it is a genuine opportunity to do work that you love, and make a great living from it. You have to be willing to put in the work.
